

FCCLA Proposed Purposes

1. Provide opportunities for personal development, community involvement, and career preparation.
2. Strengthen families as a foundational unit of society.
3. Create a community that values the involvement and collaboration of all members.
4. Build a greater understanding of the broader global society.
5. Promote cooperative action between youth and adults.
6. Provide opportunities for youth voice in making decisions and assuming leadership roles.
7. Prepare individuals for balancing multiple roles in today's society.
8. Promote Family and Consumer Sciences and related career opportunities.